Fr Scott Says: On Monday the Universal Church remembers the Lebanese priest St Sharbel Makhlūf. Being Lebanese myself, naturally I am going to mention him! St Sharbel was born in 1828 in northern Lebanon. He was ordained a priest in 1859 and lived the last 23 years of his life as a hermit. That means he lived in a house by himself, devoting his life to prayer and whatever work was needed to care for himself. To today's society this life seems pointless. But when keeping God in mind, we find this life to be indispensable for us all. Hermits are needed to pray for our needs while we carry on in the world. What we lack in time for prayer, hermits make up on our behalf. A few months after St Sharbel's death, dazzling lights began to appear around his grave, basically confirming his holiness of life on earth. That holiness of life was obtained first out of love for Jesus Christ but also out of love for His Church. That would be you. St Sharbel lived his life as a hermit for you. So why not thank Jesus for this great Lebanese saint by eating some good Lebanese food!? I've already planned my feast!

“Many Christians take their time and have leisure enough in their social life (no hurry here). They are leisurely, too, in their professionally activities, at table and recreation (no hurry here either). But isn't it strange how those same Christians find themselves in such a rush and want to hurry the priest, in their anxiety to shorten the time devoted to the most holy sacrifice of the altar?” ~St. Josemaria Escriva

The heat this time of year is intense. Please be sure to check on your elderly neighbors and those who can't leave their homes. Maybe they could use a little kindness.

We are currently planning for the next year of faith formation for the entire parish! Please prayerfully consider ways that you can be involved, whether it is as a participant or even a volunteer. Qualifications for teaching are being Catholic and loving Jesus. If that's you, contact Sarah Cauthen in the parish office!
