Fr Scott Says: This Monday we celebrate the national holiday of Labor Day. On this day we celebrate the achievements of American workers, their contributions towards the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our great nation. While many of us may see work as a chore, our faith teaches us that it is far more than that. Work is not a result of sin as Adam and Eve were charged with working the vineyard long before they sinned. They were given the gift of caring for God's creation. As St Ambrose (d.397) once said, "Every worker is the hand of Christ that continues to create and do good." That is assuming, of course, that the work being done is morally acceptable. We must remember that man was not created for work. Rather work was created for man to more fully live in the image of God. So on this day let us thank God for the work we have, and pray for those looking for the work they need.

The St Elizabeth Fair is set for Tuesday, September 19! Mark that date and check out the many ways to contribute this year! Fair Volunteer sheets are at the church doors! Each family is reminded to pick up your labeled envelope containing $1.00 raffle tickets located in the front entrance of the Church.

Fair T-shirts are on sale now! Order forms are available at the church doors and at the school!

RCIA News—We will have an informational gathering this Tuesday, Sept. 5, at 6pm in the home of Freddie & Valerie Britt (200 Westover). Contact Sarah Cauthen for more information. Do you know someone who is not Catholic and is interested in learning more about us? Bring them on the 5th!

Immaculate Conception will Celebrate its' 72nd Church Anniversary on Sunday, September 10th at the 8:30am Mass. The members have agreed to pay $72 in recognition and celebration of the 72 years of spiritual outreach to the Mississippi Delta. You are invited to bring fall flowering and foliage garden plants. The plants will be placed on the altar for the Sunday Mass where they will be blessed and after Mass will be planted in the flower bed in front of the church. You are also invited to the pre-anniversary "Evening of Games, Food and Fun" that will be held in the Parish Center on Saturday evening September 9th starting at 6:30pm.
