FINANCIAL STEWARDSHIP:

This weekend's second collection is to benefit those harmed by recent hurricanes, at the request of the Bishop Kopacz and the US Conference of Catholic Bishops.

Fr Scott Says: In the year 1531, our Blessed Mother Mary appeared to St Juan Diego just outside of Mexico City. When she appeared, a group of roses miraculously grew out of season as a sign that it truly was our Blessed Mother appearing. The rose has long been a symbol of Mary's purity and love for humanity. Passing through our parish this weekend is a Silver Rose offered as a gift to our Blessed Mother. It was produced by the Knights of Columbus and travels from Canada to Guadalupe. Take some time to see this Rose (displayed in our Churches this weekend) as your prayers and needs traveling to our Blessed Mother, who sits at the feet of Jesus praying for you now and winning for you the graces you need.

Tuesday's Mass will be at 12:10pm this week due to the Fair on Tuesday evening.
