Fr Scott Says: We are entering a new age. Actually, we are already there. But do we realize it? For so long speaking of a saint meant speaking of people who lived in a time before television, radio, or photography. But have you noticed that this is no longer true?? Blessed Stanley Rother was just beatified as a martyr last month. He was murdered in Guatemala in 1981 so pictures, voice recordings, and videos of television interviews of him exist. How awesome is that!? You can watch a modern saint in action! The same goes for Pope St John Paul II—how many of us watched him on television or even saw him in person!? And don’t forget Chiara Corbella, many of whom are already calling a saint—her interviews can be found on YouTube. Saints are still being made! And when I see these videos and hear their voices I realize I can become one, too! Don’t you!? So while we try to keep up with the Kardashians or who Blake Shelton is dating this month, let’s also try to keep up with the Rother, Corbellas, and other modern-day saints that can also be found online.

RCIA continues this Wednesday at 6pm in McKenna Hall as Celeste Zepponi joins us to talk about prayer. It’s still not too late to start! Contact Sarah Cauthen or Fr Scott for more information.

Adult Sunday School continues from 9:40-10:20am in McKenna Hall! Coffee will be provided!!
