Fr Scott Says: How many newlyweds start off their new life together committing moral sin? These days too many. So many times I hear of everything planned out for the wedding weekend minus one very important detail—fulfilling the Sunday obligation. Remember that traveling does not excuse you from your Sunday obligation. Additionally, unless the wedding is a Mass starting at or after 4pm, the wedding does not fulfil the Sunday obligation. It's so sad to think of all those couples who speak of love for Jesus and desire to be married in the Church, but then do not join the Church in the Holy Mass fulfilling their Sunday obligation the weekend of their wedding. What's more important—enjoying the night as much as humanly possible and getting to your honeymoon the next day, or participating in the Sacrament of Salvation at Holy Mass? Having your wedding at 7:30pm on a Saturday night has one great perk—you're free to attend the 6pm Mass. Yet so many sit across the parking or take a drive somewhere instead of participating in the Holy Mass. Why? I guess they don't want to be seen all dressed up before the wedding. Again, what's more important? I recently heard St John Vianney quoted as saying, we invite everyone to our wedding except Jesus. How true this is, whether we realize or not. Don't forget the most important part of the wedding weekend—fulfilling your Sunday obligation together at Holy Mass. What better way could there be to start off a life together?

RCIA meets this Wednesday at 6pm in McKenna Hall as Fr Scott discusses the role of Mary and praying the Rosary! All are welcome to join us!! For more information contact Sarah in the church office.

“Let us begin in earnest to work out our salvation, for no one will do it for us, since even He Himself, Who made us without ourselves, will not save us without ourselves.” ~St. Margaret Mary Alacoque

Friday, Nov. 17, is the feast of St Elizabeth. This patronal feast day for our parish is a solemn day and carries an indulgence attached to it for anyone who fulfills the normal conditions and prays in St Elizabeth Church that day. Masses will be at 6:30am and 8:15am. Any bread left at the statue of St Elizabeth will be donated to the Care Station.

Fr Scott will offer the traditional form of the Holy Mass (The Extraordinary Form) next Sunday at 2pm. Confessions will be heard beginning at 1:40pm.
