Fr Scott Says: One of the most powerful and memorable moments of my trip to Rome four years ago was when I encountered the original tomb of St Cecilia in the Catacombs of St Callistus. Her body is no longer there, but there is a statue depicting her body as it was found in the tomb. I knelt there immediately and prayed for my new parishes—you—and particularly for our youth. As the story goes, St Cecilia was betrothed by her parents to a man named Valerian. She brought him to the Christian faith through her purity and desire to remain a virgin for Jesus Christ. St Cecilia was martyred not long after her husband and his brother. In 1599 (about 1,300 years later), her tomb was opened and her body was found to be incorrupt and described to appear as if she were sleeping. Her name has been included in the Roman Canon (Eucharistic Prayer 1) for centuries, attesting to her power as an intercessor and saint in Heaven. St Cecilia is famously the patroness of musicians, but is also a great patroness of bodily purity, something that doesn't seem to be too popular these days. But through the intercession of St Cecilia it most definitely can be again. Her feast day is this Tuesday, Nov. 22.

RCIA does not meet this week due to the Thanksgiving Holiday.

Your church office will be closed Wednesday, Nov. 22 through Friday, Nov 24, for Thanksgiving.

Did you notice that Christmas falls on a Monday this year? That means we are obligated to celebrate both the 4th Sunday of Advent on Sunday and Christmas on Monday with separate Masses. You cannot attend only one Mass for both celebrations. So what's your plan going to be? For the 4th Sunday of Advent you may attend any of the regularly scheduled weekend Masses (Dec 23-24). For Christmas you may attend the 4pm in Shelby or 6pm at St Elizabeth (Dec 24) or 9am at IC (Dec 25).

Fr Scott will offer the traditional form of the Holy Mass (The Extraordinary Form) this Sunday at 2pm. Confessions will be heard beginning at 1:40pm.

Indulgence Alert—Next weekend, Nov. 25-26, as the Church celebrates the Solemnity of Jesus Christ King of the Universe, we will once again pray the Act of Dedication of the Human Race to Jesus Christ the King. Anyone who prays this prayer publicly on the Solemnity is eligible for a plenary indulgence, fulfilling the usual requirements (Confession, Communion, avoiding sin, praying for the Holy Father). We will pray this prayer publicly together at the end of all three regular weekend Masses, in hopes of a world more united in the Truth as taught by Jesus Christ and His Church.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!
